Support For Serbian trade unions.

It is with amazement we follow the changes in employment legislation proposed and seems to be carried out without social dialogue in Serbia. That in this drastic way impair the unions to represent their members are deeply unhappy and leads Serbian labor law away from what is common in Europe.

It is only through an equitable social dialogue, labor market can develop in a positive direction.

We, the LO district in western Sweden, give our full support to the Serbian trade unions protesting against changes in labor law. We thus also provides our support for a more equitable and just development in Serbia.
